"BREWERS" MADE ERRORS.

The Hoosiers Played in Their Usual Good Luck and Won.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MILWAUKEE, Sept. 13 .- Manager Watkins was a happy man to-night. To-day's game, according to his count, settled the pennant, and the leaders cannot lose it now if they lose every game. Clean fielding behind Stephens would have shut out the leaders. There was not an earned run scored among the six made by Indianapolis, and eight scattered hits were all that pitched well, but the Indianapolis men were lucky to have the "Brewers" hit right at them when hits meant runs. The game was played in fast style, and it was the shortest struggle for the season here, lasting only eight minutes over an hour. Indianapolis got a lead at the start, while the "Brewers" did not do much scoring until the game was well gone. But it was the fault of fortune more than anything else that the "Brewers" did not score early. In the first inning, with Nicol on second and one out, Sharp hit the ball right into Motz's hands, and a double play resulted. The ball was hit very hard, and would have been good for two bases if it had gone a foot away from Motz. show how things stumbled and fell when came their turn to do something for the good of the Milwaukee aggregation. When anapolis men got on bases some one the "Brewers" stumbled in their path of duty and runs resulted.

In the first inning Indianapolis got one run. Stephens dropped Hogriever's high fly, which, by the way, Stafford should have gone after. Hogriever stole second and scored on Roat's single. In the first half of the second Milwaukee scored one. Twitchell hit for two bases, and a sacrifice by Taylor and a drive for a base by Niles ored Lawrence. In their half Indianapolis got two runs. Newell hit for a base and stole second, and McFarland cracked out a two-bagger. Hogan hit to Taylor, and the latter failed to handle the ball and Newell scored. Hogan was caught napping at first and Phillips got out on a jumper to Taylor, but Niles made an error on Hogriever's grounder and McFarland scored. In the fourth Indianapolis got another. After Newell's out on a fly, errors by Niles and Taylor allowed McFarland and Hogan to get on the bases. Phillips hit to Sharpe and McFarland was thrown out at the plate, but a hit by Hogriever out at the plate, but a hit by Hogriever

In the first of the seventh Milwaukee got in two runs and came within one of tying. Stafford made a hit and went to second on a passed ball. He stood there while Laffeur and Stephens were being retired, but little Nicol hit over the left-field fence for a home run. In their half the leaders got the two runs back. Phillips and Hogriever led off with hits. Roat hit to Taylor and Phillips was thrown out at the plate. But when Canavan hit to Sharpe the latter let the ball get away from him and Hogriever scored. A sacrifice by Motz scored Roat. In the ninth Milwaukee made one on an arror by Roat, a hit by Taylor and error by Roat, a hit by Taylor and a passed ball, and this ended the run get-

THOSE BENEFIT GAMES.

Cleveland Meets the Champions Here Oct. 4 and 5 Instead of Pittsburg. The Cleveland League team is going to play the Western League champions Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4 and 5, on the Ohio-street grounds. Pittsburg was expected to play here those days, but Manager Mack wrote that it would be impossible to do so. A telegram to the Journal from Manager Watkins, last night, announces that Cleveland has been secured and that Indianapolis will see two of the liveliest games of the season. They are benefit games, the Indianapolis players to receive every cent of the receipts after Cleveland's share is paid. They deserve a tremendous patronage and will get it. No club has ever come near doing for Indianapolis what Watkins's men have done—namely, landed a pennant in fast company like the Western League. Thousands of people will want to buy tickets for these games. They will be put on sale very soon and there will be a rush for them. As a drawing card Cleveland should be very strong for Tebeau's men have made a game

Hoosiers Have a Cinch.

The pennant is won. Indianapolis has nine more games to play; two with Milwaukee, three with St. Paul and four with Minneapolis-one being a p:stponed game. The worst Indianapolis can do is to attain a percentage of .616, by losing all the remaining games, making her record won and 48 lost. This makes 125 games for Indianapolis. There is one game that should have been played with Terre Haute. but it cannot now be played, as the time has gone by for playing postponed games with that team, Indianapolis and Terre Haute having played their final series.

Kansas City has eight more games scheduled; two with Grand Rapids, three with Detroit and three with Terre Haute. She also has two postponed games with Terre Haute. If the "Cowboys" can win the whole ten, their percentage will be .603, with 76

St. Paul has eight games yet to play; two, with Terre Haute, three with Grand Rapids and three with Indianapolis. To win would protest the game forfeited to In-dianapolis on Aug. 23, by Minneapolis. The contingency is so unlikely to arise, however, that it is safe to say, "the pennant is won."

Reports of Great Loss of Life and Property Not Verified.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Telegrams ad-dressed to correspondent at various points in Central America have failed to bring any verification of the reports of earthquakes with attendant heavy loss of life in Honduras. The reports referred to are said to have had their origin in Tegucigalpa, based on advices from Yetapan. It was said the loss of life would reach 250 and the property damage $1,600,000. The Tegucigalpa dispatch said: "The earthquake began on Sunday afternoon and lasted during the day and night. Thousands of persons hurried down from the mountains. During the afternoon and evening of Monday sheets of fiame were noticeable on the horizon, adding to the general alarm. By Tuesday morning public confidence had been restored and the mountaineers had stafted for their homes, but late that very night the quake was again heard and the people once more returned to the suburbs. At midnight the tower of the church fell, killing ten persons and wounding a score or more. Shortly before daylight another se-vere shock was noticed. Many persons were kfilled by the falling rocks. Fire, smoke and lava issued in enormous quantities from the sides of the mountain. According to reports received at Yetapan one hundred houses have been destroyed. At two small towns not far from Yetapan as many more houses were destroyed and one hundred persons are reported dead or dying. The loss of life at Yetapan will perhaps reach loss of life at Yetapan will perhaps reach 150. It is apparent that the worst is over, but the alarm is widespread and still con-tinues. A company of soldiers sent from Yetapan to the coast has not been heard rom and it is feared they have all been

The Introductory Volumes of Mr. ENGLISH'S long-expected Historical Work will be published this fall, complete in themselves,

UNDER THE TITLE OF

CONQUEST OF THE NORTHWEST

With sketches of the men who achieved it, including a complete life of General George Rogers Clarke. By Hon. WM. H. ENGLISH, of Indiana. Complete in two large volumes, with numerous illustrations.

Hon. Wm. H. English, of Indianapolis, is certainly deserving of the highest commendation for his action in withdrawing from public life several years ago in order to devote himself to the task of writing a history of Indiana, the introduction of which is now appearing in two volumes under the title of "Conquest of the Northwest." He is a millionaire, and it is therefore unreasonable to suppose that his work along historical lines was animated by any spirit of selfishness or sordidness. No other man is so well equipped for the task he self-imposed. He has been a conspicuous figure in Indiana almost continuously since it was admitted to Statehood. He was secretary of the Constitutional Convention, and his personality is strongly marked in the organic law as well as in much of subsequent legislation. His great wealth has afforded him opportunities for devoting his entire attention to literary labor. His intimacy with public men and State and federal officials, has given him exceptional facilities for gaining access to documents necessary to insure thoroughness and exactness in the preparation of the history. After several years of ardent devotion and labor undertaken in a spirit of State pride and for pure love of it, the publication of "The Conquest of the Northwest" will cause him to be kindly remembered as an Indianian whose motives have been often misconstrued, and whose real worth as a man and citizen has been often ignored by unreasonable political bias and human nature's inherent prejudice against men of immense wealth.

There was bitter wailing and gnashing of teeth in Kansas City last night, for the Hoosiers won the second game of the final series from the "Blues." With the score 10 to 7 against them, the men from Indiana fell upon Peter Daniels in the final inning and pounded out four runs. This throws Manager Twitchell, of the "Brewers, signed a contract with Secretary Engel, who is to take a team to California after the close of the season here, to play right field. Secretary Engel will locate at Oak-land, Cal., with his team. The season will open Oct. 15 and last until Dec. 15, and the team that Secretary Engel will take out together with the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Detroit teams, will make up the league. Secretary Engel's team will be made up as Secretary Engel's team will be made up as follows: McFarland, catcher; Fisher, Rettger and Jones, pitchers; McCauley, first base; Sharpe, second base; Niles, third base; Roat, shortstop; Nicel, left field; Hogan, center field; Twitchell, right field. This team should play good ball. It will play exhibition games on the way to the coast.—Milwaukee Sentinel.
